Cotton Resources Released and Sum Is Invested by Brokers in Stocks.

NEW YORK, August 12.—The backers of the active operations in the stock market were too much occupied to-day with their various devices of leadership and manipulation to pay much attention to the news of the day. Two items of the day's news happened to conjoin to affect unfavorably two groups of securities which have been most conspicuous in the speculation in the last few days, and this served to emphasize the drop of the first hour values.

in the last few days, and this served to emphasize the drop of the first hour in values.

The order of the Public Service Commission, issued after the close yesterday, for the restoration of transfers between the Metropolitan Traction system and the central cross-town lines, chilled the speculative enthusiasm based on the lopping off of many transfer obligations since the receiverships for the local traction systems.

There was a reaction in the price of copper at the New York Metal Exchange after successive advances of a fraction at a time for many days past. Some of the most conspicuous busing to-day came from the same brokers that sold most largely yesterday. The reaction was regarded as affording a test of the market and when the unward movement was resumed speculative opinion was reassured.

The dimensions of the market were smaller than of late. This was partly due to a large diversion of speculative interest to the cotton market. The enormous liquidation effected in that market was attributed in large part to Wall Street interests, and there was heard the assumption that the resources thus released were being transferred into stocks.

Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value, were $3.431,666. United States 2's registered advanced 1-4 per cent on call. Total sales of stocks to-day were 774,200 shares.
